

explore the message of

Love, Harmony and Beauty

at the 11th Annual Sufi Youth Retreat
July 12 – 16, 2011

The eleventh annual Sufi Youth Retreat will once again be held among the majestic redwoods of Northern California at the Mendocino Woodlands State Park.

What to expect

We hold a universalist world view, based on the teachings of Hazrat Inayat Khan and Murshid Samuel Lewis, that sees and honors the truth in all religions and spiritual traditions, known and unknown. The Sufi's house of worship is the human heart, wherein dwells the Divine Beloved; Sufism is the message of love, harmony, and beauty. There is no compulsion, no dogma, on the Sufi path.

Teachers

Guest teachers Murshida Asha Greer and Sheikh Latif Burdick will help guide retreatants in practice, contemplation, and the wealth of Sufi lineage through the Dances of Universal Peace, zikr, conversation, and music.

There also will be time to explore the beauty of the forest.

When

The retreat will be from Tuesday, July 12 through Saturday, July 16 (immediately preceding the week-long Mendocino Sufi Camp).
